1. Executive Summary

Strata Noble Consulting is a digital infrastructure studio that builds and operates revenue-producing systems for service businesses and early-stage ventures. We solve a critical problem: small service businesses lose 20-40% of potential revenue through operational inefficiencies—missed calls, slow response times, broken booking flows, and disconnected tool stacks.

Our Solution: We don't treat this as a website problem. We treat it as an operating system problem. Strata Noble maps the real revenue flow end-to-end and builds digital infrastructure that captures demand, converts leads, and retains customers.

Our Model: Services revenue funds product development. Consulting engagements generate immediate cash flow while validating tools and methodologies that can later spin out as standalone products when market triggers are met.

"We help local service businesses capture the demand they're already generating but losing through slow response times, broken booking flows, and disconnected systems."

For Investors: Strata Noble represents a capital-efficient opportunity to back an operator-led business with strong unit economics, high margins, and a clear path to profitability from Year 1.

For Grant Organizations: Strata Noble directly supports under-resourced entrepreneurs, creating economic impact through business infrastructure that enables sustainable income and job creation.

2. Company Description

Founding Story

Strata Noble was founded on a simple observation: small service businesses are skilled at what they do but systematically fail to capture the demand they generate. They lose leads to slow response times, broken booking flows, and scattered tool stacks that never function as a cohesive system.

The founder, Stephen Hubbard, built Strata Noble to turn operational diagnosis and system design skills into a real, independent engine—creating income, proof, and leverage while helping under-resourced entrepreneurs stop guessing and start operating.

"I started Strata Noble to help people who work hard but struggle to convert that effort into consistent revenue. They don't need another dashboard or another tool. They need a system that actually works."

Mission Statement

Mission: Strata Noble equips under-resourced entrepreneurs and small service businesses with revenue-producing digital infrastructure and practical operating systems that turn effort into measurable progress, credible presence, and sustainable income.

Vision Statement

Vision: A world where a solo operator can compete with larger brands because their systems are tight. Clear customer journeys, clean data, reliable automation, and decision-ready reporting become normal for small businesses—not a luxury.

Core Values

Clarity	Plain language, clean scope, no fog machines
Reliability	Secure, stable builds with real operational readiness

Entity Strategy

Strata Noble Consulting LLC operates as a services-first entity that funds product development through consulting revenue. As internal tools and methodologies mature into standalone products, they will spin out into separate legal entities when specific triggers are met (revenue thresholds, investor interest, or liability exposure). This structure provides:

- Clean liability separation between consulting services and product operations

- Flexible capitalization paths for individual products without diluting the core consulting business
- IP clarity with formal licensing agreements between the parent consulting entity and any spinout
- Operational focus allowing each entity to optimize for its specific market and customer base

Product spinout triggers and IP assignment protocols are documented in the Entity and Spinout Policy (Appendix H).

Current State	Has demand but lacks systems to capture it
Work Style	Often building nights/weekends while employed
Decision Maker	Owner/operator (direct access)
Mindset	Values outcomes over features
Tech Comfort	Moderate; uses basic tools but overwhelmed by complexity

Customer Pain Analysis

The Problem Quantified

Pain Point	Impact	Prevalence
Slow Lead Response	78% of leads go to first responder; avg response time is 47 hours	Universal
Broken Booking Flows	30-50% booking abandonment rate	Very Common
Disconnected Tools	Data silos, manual re-entry, no single source of truth	Universal
No Conversion Visibility	Can't optimize marketing spend or identify what works	Very Common
Inconsistent Follow-up	Lost repeat business, no review generation	Common

The Broken Tool Stack

Most small businesses attempt to solve these problems with disconnected DIY solutions:

Typical Disconnected Stack:

Function	Common Tools	Problem
Website	Wix, Squarespace, WordPress template	Not optimized for conversion
"Homepage"	Instagram, Facebook, TikTok	No lead capture
Lead Tracking	Spreadsheets, Notes, Memory	Data gets lost
Communication	DMs, Texts, Email (scattered)	No single thread
Payments	Zelle, Cash App, PayPal, Stripe links	Manual reconciliation
Scheduling	Calendly, Acuity, Shared calendar	Disconnected from CRM
CRM	HubSpot Free, GoHighLevel	Unconfigured, unused

Result: Tools exist but don't function as a SYSTEM.

The Outcome: Leads fall through cracks, follow-up is inconsistent, delivery is harder than necessary, and growth stalls.

10. Funding Request & Use of Funds

Investment Overview

Attribute	Detail
Amount Sought	$10,000 – $25,000
Funding Type	Grant (preferred); Seed (considered)
Use	Formation, operations, acquisition engine
Timeline	Deploy over 6-9 months

Why Grant First: Grant funding enables formation without equity dilution, preserving full founder ownership during the critical proof-of-concept phase. The capital-efficient model means revenue generation begins Month 1, making grant capital a high-impact, low-risk investment for funders focused on economic development and entrepreneurship support.

Why This Amount?

This funding level enables Strata Noble to:

1. Formalize legally — LLC, licensing, contracts
2. Operate professionally — Accounting, bookkeeping, banking
3. Deliver reliably — Production-grade tool stack
4. Acquire consistently — Website, content, outreach

Not seeking more because: The business model is capital-efficient. Revenue generation begins Month 1, and profitability is expected by Month 2-3.

Appendix H: Entity and Spinout Policy

Purpose

This policy defines when and how internal products developed within Strata Noble Consulting LLC spin out into separate legal entities.

Operating Principle

Services fund products. Strata Noble Consulting LLC is a services-first entity. Consulting revenue funds internal tool and product development. Products remain internal IP until spinout triggers are met.

Spinout Triggers

A product becomes a candidate for spinout when any one of the following triggers is met:

Trigger	Threshold	Rationale
Revenue	$5,000 MRR sustained for 3+ months	Demonstrates market validation and operational viability
Investor Interest	Formal term sheet or LOI received	External capital requires clean entity structure
Liability Exposure	Payments processing, scheduling at scale, or consumer PII at volume	Isolates risk from core consulting operations

Spinout Process

1. Trigger Identification — Founder identifies that a product has met a spinout trigger
2. Entity Formation — New LLC or Corp formed in Nevada (or investor-preferred jurisdiction)
3. IP Assignment — Formal IP assignment agreement executed; Strata Noble Consulting retains licensing rights if applicable
4. Operational Separation — Separate banking, contracts, and branding established
5. Documentation — Spinout recorded in company records with effective date and trigger reason

IP Treatment

Scenario	Treatment
Pre-Spinout	All IP owned by Strata Noble Consulting LLC
At Spinout	IP assigned to new entity via formal agreement
Licensing Back	Consulting entity may retain perpetual license for internal use or client delivery
Revenue Share	Optional revenue share or equity stake negotiated at spinout

Naming Convention

Spinout entities will use distinct branding to avoid confusion:

- Consulting: Strata Noble Consulting LLC
- Products: [Product Name] by Strata Noble or independent brand
